The sun rose thinly from the sea and the old man could see the other boats 9. The clouds over the land now rose like mountains and the coast was only a long green line 10. He did not remember when he had first started to talk aloud 11. He was happy feeling the gentle pulling and then he felt something 12. Once he stood up and urinated over the side of the skiff 13. Some time before daylight something took one of the baits 14. There was yellow weed on the line but the old man knew 15. He knelt down and found the tuna under the stern with the gaff 16. He looked across the sea and knew how alone ha was now. 17. I wonder why he jumped, the old man thought. 18. As the sun set he remembered to give himself more confidence 19. Just before it was dark, as they passed a great island of Sagasso weed 20. Now I will rest an hour more and feel that he is solid and steady 21. Back in the bow he laid the two fillets of fish out on the wood 22. The line went out and out and out but it was slowing now 23. For an hour the old man had been seeing black spots before his eyes 24. He had rigged his harpoon long before and its coil of light rope 25. He started to pull the fish in to have him alongside 26. They sailed well and the old man soaked his hands in the salt water 27. The breeze was fresh now and he sailed on well. 28. The skiff was still shaking with the destruction the other shark was doing 29. The two sharks closed together and as he saw the one nearest him open his jaws 30.
